

Date Received _____

JANE BARTON CONTEST

This award was established in Memory of Jane Barton, former Home Economics Agent, in Seneca County. She stressed good construction, pressing, and total look in her efforts to teach clothing to 4-H members. One example she always used was: If it is well constructed on the inside it will show on the outside.

Name _____ Age (Jan. 1) _____

Address _____ Phone _____

Club _____ Years in 4-H _____

Years Enrolled in Clothing Projects _____ Project _____

1. Have you applied for this award before? _____ What Age? _____

Did You Win? _____ Which age Group? _____

2. What new knowledge and skills have you learned in this project? _____

3. In what areas has your sewing construction improved the most - seam finishes, closures, pattern layout, cutting out, hems, detailed finishes, etc.? _____

4. Explain your participation in the clothing activities in your club, community and county. Be specific.

5. List demonstrations, workshops, judging events, etc. that you participated in throughout the clothing projects. Include the year and topic. _____

6. How do you plan to use your acquired sewing skills and knowledge in the future?

