Container Gardening Workshop

Join the Seneca County Master Gardener Volunteers to learn all about container gardening. We will be focusing on houseplants and annuals while still explaining the basics of raised beds and outdoor containers. Participants will learn how to choose their plants, choose the soil and then pot their plants. The cost for the workshop is $25 and registration is required. To register, please drop your payment and form off to the Seneca County Extension Office or mail it to the address below.
