

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

Seneca County Junior Fair Skillathon

STUDY GUIDE C - POULTRY

TOPICS/ RESOURCES	BEGINNER LEVEL (8-11)	INTERMEDIATE LEVEL (12-14)	ADVANCED LEVEL (15-18)
Animal Handling	Understand how to raise chickens for meat and egg production.	Understand biosecurity as a means for minimizing diseases, and how to raise chickens for meat and egg production.	Identify an effective biosecurity plan. Understand how to raise poultry (meat & eggs) and transport poultry.
Nutrition & Feed Labels	Identify the six major components of poultry nutrition and how to read a feed label.	Identify the six major components of poultry nutrition . Understand common feed ingredients in poultry diets. Understand how to read and analyze a feed label.	Identify the six major components of poultry nutrition and understand feed ingredients . Understand deficiencies in poultry. Understand how to read and interpret a feed label.
Poultry Characteristics	Identify breeds of chickens.	Identify breeds of chickens and characteristics of each.	Identify breeds of chickens and characteristics of each.
Terminology	Identify sex-specific (i.e. rooster, hen, tom, drake, etc.) poultry terminology.	Identify sex-specific and industry-specific (broilers, fryers, roasters, etc.) poultry terminology.	Identify poultry terminology , including but not limited to: sex-specific, industry-specific, parts of an egg, management practices and feather patterns.
Equipment	There will not be an equipment station this year.		